RIDDLER MYSTERY IN ITS FOURTH WEEK

The Great Stolen "W" mystery entered its Fourth Week this week at PGC. As the Riddler telephoned the GOOD GUYS with such helpful clues as "The W is in or around the Capitol of the Nation. Find it, and you'll see a lucky letter combination". Or, "A great lady hopes you'll find the letter. You see, my clues are getting better". The clues have proven no help to the Good Guys and each guess made by our listeners has failed to locate the "W" the Riddler stole from PGC.

REWARD OFFERED

The $1,000 jackpot of prizes include a color TV, a stereo hi fi console combination, a gorgeous AM FM radio, dozens of tickets to see the Red Hot Washington Senators, a fabulous record collection, and so on. Every hour, the GOOD GUYS take their choice of guesses and read one per hour to The Riddler. The first guess that identifies the EXACT location of our missing "W" will win all of the great prizes. However, the Riddler has warned time and again, the guesses must list the exact location of the missing W.

GOOD GUYS PLEA FOR HELP

Harv Moore, returned from hospital surgery and said, "Gee, I really thought we'd have the W back by now."

"The clues haven't been much help to me, but then again — I'm dumb", said Cousin Duffy. "All we can do is hope our listeners will help us out."
